55 Years Of Faithful Remembrance

Francis P. Markey, retired director of Andover's Veterans Affairs office, was in uniform and a participant in the town's Memorial Day exercises Monday for the 55th consecutive year. Frank, initially served the town's veterans on a voluntary basis until the office of veterans affairs was made a compulsory part of municipal government. During his tenure he organized and conducted the annual patriotic tributes for the community. Monday, the 82-year-old Andover veteran was again on hand.

School Board Shuns Sacred Heart Parcel

By Linda S. Corbett
Of The Townsman Staff

The purchase of Sacred Heart as a possible solution to overcrowding in Andover schools, was ruled out at least temporarily by the School Committee Tuesday night.

The committee favored further investigation of a "4-4-4" grade restructuring plan instead, but did stamp "at this point in time" on the Sacred Heart refusal, leaving the door open in case they change their minds in the future.

The decisions followed presentation of a lengthy facility study by Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert. The study, aimed at relieving the overage of 500 students expected in Andover schools for the next five to eight years, also included a status report on present facilities, updating of the New England School Development Council report of 1969 on a "core complex" between West Junior High and the High School, various other grade reorganization plans, and use of portable classrooms.

Seifert said all the plans assume that elementary school capacity is 3200 to 3500, junior high capacity, 1400 to 1500, and high school, 1200 to 1300.

By 1980, projections show the elementaries will be down 227 to 427 pupils, while the secondaries will need 646 to 938 additional seats.

Seifert said his feeling is that Sacred Heart is "a very good facility" and architecturally "very, very sound," but not satisfactory for school use as it stands now.

Suspicious Fire Levels West Andover Barn

Andover fire and police officials, joined by the State Fire Marshal's office are investigating a fire of suspicious origin which destroyed a barn on the Walter Disbrow property, 259 Chandler Road.

The fire, causing an estimated $18,000 damage to the building and property inside, was reported shortly after 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Disbrow was released from jail Friday on $5,000 bail, on charges stemming from arson in connection with three barn fires in Andover since last fall. An employee of Disbrow, Kenneth J. McConnell, is also being held on similar charges.

Det. Sgt. Robert Parker and Det. Donald Mooers, in charge of the investigation for Andover police, reported that Disbrow said he had no insurance on the property.

As to why the particular barn was effected by the blaze, the owner told police it was more easily accessible. Another barn on the property scorched by the blaze, was considered more valuable by the owner.

Disbrow told police he thought the fire had started in the east section of the building. He also told police he thought the fire possibly could have

O'Brien Accepted As Board Counsel

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night narrowly accepted a town offer to use Assistant Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien as school committee counsel.

They did, however, leave themselves an "out" to arrange for special counsel should they go into court.

The O'Brien arrangement was offered by the Selectmen, through Town Manager J. Maynard Austin, in response to a request from Committee Chairman Frank Griggs for counsel.

It succeeded after a motion to transfer $5,000 from non-academic areas in next year's budget, for special counsel, was defeated 3-2.

In his long plea for the transfer, Committeeman John Lyons indicated that at least one suit, brought by former Assistant Superintendent Edward Regan, was possibly in the works now.

Lyons called the O'Brien arrangement "totally unacceptable" because O'Brien is a law partner of Town Counsel Alfred Daniels. His motion to transfer the funds, and in effect override the vote of the recent Town Meeting, was seconded by Committeeman George Olesen.

Olesen said he knew O'Brien was held in esteem by his fellow lawyers, but said he was afraid O'Brien wouldn't be able to keep "politics" from getting in his way.

The committee had transferred $5,000 from other accounts for their own counsel last spring, after then-Committeeman William

Fire Damaged Barn Area

430 Have Pressure Checked

The weekly blood pressure checks being provided the first four Fridays of May by the Andover Board of Health and the Andover Visiting Nurse Association, resulted in 58 persons being referred to their private physicians for further examination.

Mary Hamilton, R.N., of the Andover Board of Health, under whose direction the hypertension clinics were conducted, reported that a total of 430 persons took advantage of the service provided by the department and the visiting nurses.

Where elevations in blood pressure were detected, the persons were advised to consult with their family physician for further check and possible treatment.

Some people were already under treatment for high blood pressure and took the opportunity of the reading to check their progress.

Postmaster Asks Public 'Bring Us The Problems'

Postal customers in the Andover area who have complaints about damaged or delayed mail were urged by Postmaster Louis F. Schwenke to save the envelope or parcel wrapping to enable postal officials to track down the source of delay or damage.

"The information on the envelope or parcel gives us a place to begin an investigation into what might have happened to a damaged or delayed letter or parcel," said the Postmaster. "Saving the envelope and parcel wrapping when you have a problem and bringing it in for us to look at gives us a better chance of tracing it."

Such cooperation is particularly important during the current consumer service test, the Postmaster said. Begun on May 21, the test is a six week program aimed at expanding the level and quality of service provided to postal customers. The Postal Service hopes to implement the service program on a national basis in late summer.

There are publications available at the post office to help people mail more effectively. Postal customers should ask for Postal Publication 2, which provides information on how to secure speedier and more secure service by proper wrapping.

"What's most important," Postmaster Schwenke said, "is for the public to come to us with their problems. We'll be glad to work with them to try to resolve them."

New Procedure For Issuing Sewer Permits

Beginning June 1, a new procedure for issuance of sewer entrance permits will be invoked by the Andover Board of Health.

The department of public works will continue to issue the "Application for permit to connect to the Andover Sanitary Sewer System," to all prospective builders.

The builders shall then present this completed application to the Board of Health office and complete an application for permit with the plumbing inspector.

The board of health office will then issue a sewer entrance permit using the standard license form.

The builder will then immediately pay the necessary fee to the town tax collector and return one copy of the validated license to the board of health.

Public works applications for permit to connect to Andover's sanitary sewer system, previously issued, will not be valid for payment of fees to the tax collector's office after May 30. Persons holding such applications should pay their fees using these forms prior to May 30, or must surrender these applications to the board of health office, and follow through the procedure outlined above.

Engraved Protection

Selectman Janet Lake and Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen check over the engraving tool available at the Andover police station for residents to mark personal property as part of the Project Identification program. The program is aimed at having residents mark their valuables prior to the start of the summer vacation season when incidence of house breaks is on the increase.

Insurance Exec. Boosts Operation Identification

Project Identification, an effort to curb crime in Andover, particularly before the prime vacation begins, got underway this week, with a top insurance company official lending impetus to the drive.

The effort, suggested by Selectman Janet M. Lake and supported by her colleagues, calls for residents to mark valuables with an engraving machine available free from the police station and some insurance agencies.

William H. Kilmain, executive director of the Massachusetts Association of Independent Insurance Agents, addressed a meeting of local officials Tuesday morning at the town hall as part of the preparation for the program.

Mr. Kilmain discussed his association's experience in other towns and cities in Massachusetts, focusing on the highly successful program in Newton.

The engraving machine is used to place the driver's license (social security number) on the valuable items in the home. Thus marked they become not only identifiable, but also act as a deterrent to criminals.

The program was initiated by Mrs. Lake due to the large number of house breaks in the community. The effort, based on the experience in Newton, is aimed at curtailing the incidence of breaks and attempted breaks.

A sticker placed on a door in the home informs would-be housebreakers that the valuables in the home have been engraved and that the homeowner is a participant in the Project Identification program.

It has been proven that such items are not taken, since they are difficult to dispose of by thieves.

Also, should items be victim of house breaks, the identifying numbers which are placed on record with the local police department, thus can be traced and possibly returned.

In Newton, of 1,000 housebreaks reported, only two were in homes that were participating in the program.

Other communities have also noted a sharp decline in housebreaks through the program.

Mrs. Lake has pointed out that in a community the size of Andover it is difficult for police to adequately cover every area of town.

This is a step which can assist the police and help in reducing the increasing number of housebreaks.

The engraving machine has been available at the police station for the past few years, but its use has declined recently, possibly due to residents not aware of the availability.

All social, civic and church organizations have been informed of the availability of the machine and also asked to assist in not only making people aware of the program, but also aiding in the use of the tool.

Present for the Tuesday morning meeting were Selectman Janet D. Lake, Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen, Police Chief David L. Nicoll, James D. Doherty and representatives of the Andover Jaycees, Boy Scouts and Exchange club.

Traditional Memorial Day Services Held

Memorial Hall Service

Congressman Paul Tsongas told an Andover Memorial Day audience of the need for the country to philosophically identify. His remarks were made during the traditional service held at Memorial Auditorium, Monday morning.

The congressman, principal speaker for the service, also commented that though the U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia was in error, those who sacrificed in that war cannot be forgotten.

Tsongas, who also participated in the presentation of the Bicentennial Flag to the town following the ceremonies, also noted the fitting tribute paid to those who sacrificed to preserve America's heritage.

The service was opened with the offering of a prayer by Rev. Edward G. Robinson, OSA, pastor of St. Augustine's parish.

Following the playing of the National Anthem, Commander Benjamin Brown of Post 8 American Legion, master of ceremonies, introduced State Rep. Gerald Cohen who delivered the eulogy.

In his brief remarks Rep. Cohen asked for a rededication to the lives American servicemen fought to preserve. He also quoted from writings of Mrs. Grace Peters on patriotism and dedication to country.

Andover veterans groups pay Memorial Day tribute at special service at Memorial Hall Library. The service is one of several which preceded the annual parade and main service at Memorial Auditorium.

Miss Laura Reed, representing the Girl Scouts, gave the recitation, "In Flanders Field," followed by the playing of a hymn by the Edward Grigoli band.

Robert Lenk of the Boy Scouts gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Congressman Tsongas was introduced by Selectman Edmund J. Sullivan, Jr.

The service concluded with the placing of wreaths by Commander Brown and Commander John O'Connor of V.F.W. Post 2128, benediction by Rev. Randolph Becker, of the Unitarian - Universalist church, a volley by the combined Veterans Posts firing squad and taps and echo by Mark Grigoli and James Galbiati.

The principal service was preceded by a five unit parade which stepped off from the corner of Florence and Elm streets promptly at 9:30 a.m.

Commander Brown and John J. Lewis, director of veterans services, served as marshals for the parade which included units from the U.S. Army and U.S. Marine Corps in the line of march, along with Legion, V.F.W. and their auxiliaries, Gold Star Mothers, and Disabled American Veterans members.

Also joining in the parade were police, Selectmen Janet D. Lake and Edmund J. Sullivan, Jr., school department personnel, fire department and the Edward Grigoli band.

The Andover High School Band and the Clan MacPherson Band also provided musical accompaniment for the marchers. Youth groups and fraternal organizations completed the line of March.

Prior to the parade and service, the Veterans groups, joined by friends and families, paid traditional tribute to the deceased of all wars at Andover cemeteries.

The individual services were as follows:

Cookout Time

Charcoal grills come into prominent use in the spring and summer. Extreme caution should be taken when cooking on charcoal grills to prevent painful burn injuries and inhalation of smoke and gases. Gasoline should never be used in place of charcoal lighter fluid. And never reapply charcoal lighter fluid after the fire has started; the flames can ignite the vapors, and travel up to the pan causing an explosion.

West Parish cemetery: Commander John O'Connor, V.F.W. Post 2128, delivered the eulogy and placed wreaths, with taps provided by Mark Grigoli.

St. Augustine's cemetery: Prayers by Rev. Edward G. Robinson, eulogy and floral tribute by Commander O'Connor, volley by VFW firing squad and taps by Mark Grigoli.

Spring Grove cemetery: American Legion lot, Commander Benjamin Brown opening remarks, James Caldwell, chaplain, Post 8, American Legion, prayer; Rev. Randolph Becker, eulogy by Commander Brown, placing of floral tributes, volley and taps. A similar service was conducted at South church cemetery.

The final special service was

Roses Are Thirsty

Your roses may be thirsty. They appreciate a good soaking at least once a week, and rainfall is usually not enough. The American Association of Nurserymen advises you to avoid frequent light sprinkling, but once a week give the rose bushes about an inch of moisture - enough to soak the roots. How can you tell when you've given them enough water? Put a finger in the ground to about an inch depth. If there is moisture there you know you're right.

Accept Letter Of Support

The North Andover School Committee will award the contract for the repair of the Kirtledge School roof at its next Tuesday meeting.

The school committee received a letter from James O'Neill, president of the North Andover Teacher's Association stating that the teachers will support the committee's attempt to restore the $110,000 slashed from the school budget at the April 26 Town Meeting.

The high school field hockey coach and the soccer coach will be paid the same stipend as a result of an investigation by the Department of Labor on sexual discrimination in the High School Athletic Department. Superintendent Peter Garofoli said he was pleased that of all the coaches stipend investigated this was the only discrepancy.

The committee turned down the North Andover American Field Service request to have two foreign students attend the High School for the next school term instead of one.

The Title I program will continue in the schools on the recommendation of Garofoli.

Amount appropriated was $112,767.

Demers To Chair MDA Campaign

Ken Hodge, Massachusetts state chairman of the Muscular Dystrophy Association announced that Robert Demers, a local firefighter, has been named as the Andover chairman for the dystrophy campaign.

As area chairman, he'll be coordinating the upcoming "Pass The Kit" residential appeal to raise funds for the health agency. Mr. Hodge commented that collection kits are being mailed to community residents who are asked to insert their donation and then pass the envelope along to their neighbor. This new system replaced the previous method of gathering campaign funds through the recruitment of door to door collectors. The change was made after several months of discussion with MDA leaders which revealed that volunteers prefer to mail in their donation and use the simpler method of handing the kit to the next person on the list rather than canvassing the entire street. It also will cut down on expenses related to telephone calls required by the former recruitment program.

Andover senior citizens will officially open the new recreation area of The Haven at 25 Barnard St., Sunday, June 1, with an Open house from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Everyone is invited to visit The Haven for this event and see the many activities first hand.

The work in the new area was done by the electrical and carpentry classes of the Regional Vocational High School and the floor was painted by Peter Mullett and members of the Jay-Cees. Among those who are expected to attend this Open House celebration are Representatives of the Merrimack Valley Home Care Center, the Community Action Council, the Homemakers' Service of Lawrence General Hospital, the Andover Housing Authority and Mrs. Mary Hamilton of the Andover Board of Health. Other Andover town officials will also be present.

At 2 o'clock the Verse Tillies quartet of the Lynn Chapter of the Sweet Adelines will present a program of songs. There will be exhibits of arts and crafts of The Haven Associates - the name given to those who use The Haven. Light refreshments will be served.

The Andover Haven is the town supported drop-in facility for Andover's over-60 population. It is open every day except weekends and holidays and is for the use of all residents over 60. Classes are held there in a variety of fields as well as serving as a clearing house of referral and information services. And is also a good place to visit for companionship, a cup of coffee or tea and someone to drink it with.

Newcomers are always invited and will be made most welcome. Plan to attend the Open House Sunday, June 1, to learn more about this fine facility.

Town To Appeal Housing Decision

The North Andover selectmen decided Tuesday that the town will take the State Housing Appeals Committee to court for their approval of 230 low and moderate income housing units on Waverly Road.

The decision was in agreement with the recommendation of the Board of Appeals request for the final decision on this situation to be made by the Superior Court.

Selectman Joseph Guthrie stated that Town Counsel Arnold Salisbury had agreed to be counsel for the town and also Salisbury will not charge the town a fee unless he wins the case.

During the meeting Attorney James G. Dolan, Jr., general counsel for the Archdiocese, stated he believed it would be useless to fight the decision on low income housing because in six previous court cases the State Housing Appeals Committee has won.

Chairman John Coady read a petition from residents that stated this was an issue of state versus local control. The petition questioned how could three men from the Housing Appeals Committee who spent very little time at the Waverly Road site, state there is no drainage problem or the development would not create traffic problems.

The meeting was attended by residents who cheered when they heard the selectmen's decision.

Mrs. Patricia Trombly and Gayton Osgood were appointed Temporary Chairmen of the newly formed Lake Cochichewick Study Group. The Committee's first meeting will be held June 3, 7:30, with the selectmen.

Osgood said, "Because we believe we should keep all town boards and lake abutters informed on what we are doing, we are planning a meeting on June 17, at the Textile Museum and all will be invited. Atty. Sandra Dawson of the Conservation Law Foundation, and Gordon Abbott from the Trustees of Reservations, will talk on preserving or controlling land."

Members appointed to the Lake Cochichewick study group are: Mrs. Patricia Trombly, Gayton Osgood, Henry Donovan, Joseph Cushing, Frank Gelinas, William McEvoy, Donald Keirstead, Atty. Clifford Elias, Mrs. Lillian Lafond, Mrs. Louisa King and William Salemme.

The town garage general contract was awarded to Amici Construction Corp.

Joseph Willis, administrative assistant to the selectmen, was appointed the 1976 United Fund Community Chairman for North Andover.

The selectmen granted a permit for a Bicentennial Parade for July 5 at the request of Peter V. Rossiter, Chairman of the Bicentennial Committee.

The Orchard House, Route 2A Concord, where Louisa May Alcott wrote "Little Women," is open daily from 10 to 4:30, Sundays, 1 to 4:30.

Local Students In Concert

The Music Department of Phillips Academy will give its final concert of the year on Friday, May 30, at 7 p.m. in George Washington Hall on the campus. The Band, Chamber Orchestra and Chorus will present a variety of works.

The Chorus, directed by Christine Johnston, will be singing Renaissance madrigals, both lively and sad, from all over Europe. They will conclude their part of the program, joined by the orchestra and soloists, with a motet by Heinrich Schuetz. Among the soloists are local students Felicia Elias and Mary Jo O'Reilly.

The Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of William Schneider, will perform two overtures: Mozart's overture to "Il Re Pastore" and Handel's overture to "The Messiah."

The Band, directed by William Clift and James Harwood, will play themes from "Ein Heldenleben" by Strauss, "Music for a Carnival" by Grundman, Russian Sailor's Dance from "The Red Poppy" by Gliere. This will be followed by the "Prelude and Fugue in F minor" by Bright, the "Australian Up-country Tune" by Grainger, and the "Country Band" march by Ives.

The public is invited to attend, and there is no charge for admission.

Tree Planting

The staff and parents of Doherty School are planning a tree planting ceremony in memory of Dorothy Runyan's many years of devoted service to the children of Doherty School. Administrators, teachers, former pupils and friends are invited to attend this brief dedication held tomorrow, May 30, 2 p.m. in front of Doherty School.

Pool Safety

Each year some 40,000 people are treated in hospital emergency rooms for injuries associated with in-ground swimming pools. The greatest number of those injuries are a result of falls on slippery surfaces surrounding pools. Installation of non-slip material around the pool could make the area safer.

It is also a good idea to place rescue and first aid equipment nearby. Keeping electrical appliances, such as radios, away from the swimming pool will reduce hazards of electric shock.

He estimated it would cost from $3,450,000 to $4,135,000 to convert it for use as an intermediate school for 500 pupils in grades five through eight.

Furthermore, he estimated fuel costs to be about $30,000 to $35,000 a year, and electric bills to run about $2,000 a month.

On the other hand, he said, the administration felt that the "4-4-4" plan, suggested by Committeeman George Olesen, "would be the best way to go."

Under this plan, he said, Doherty, South, Sanborn and Shawsheen Schools could be converted for grades kindergarten through four, while Bancroft and West Elementary would join East Junior High as "middle schools," for grades five through eight.

West Junior High and the present high school would handle grades nine through 12.

While a five-year projection shows this plan would still be short some seats, Committeeman David Ahouse's motion to pursue it included a study of the addition of portable classrooms to make up the difference.

Among the advantages of "4-4-4," Seifert cited alternative educational settings, a comprehensive four-year high school, excellent media/library facilities for the middle schools at Bancroft and West, and the fact that purchase of an alternative facility wouldn't be necessary.

On the "con" side, he noted possible lack of support facilities, such as gymnasiums, art rooms and laboratories.

Seifert said he felt the "4-4-4" would also make sense from maturation and programmatic standpoints, particularly for fourth and fifth graders who are running off the elementary scale in their classwork.

He said there is also quite a difference between fourth and fifth graders and the lower grades, as there is between eighth and ninth graders and those younger.

In addition, he said, Carnegie units already carry over from ninth grade to high school, so that would be a "logical grouping."

High School Principal Philip Wormwood said the "4-4-4" plan is the most common in the U.S., and that he especially favored a four-year high school.

Committeeman George Olesen made the motion not to recommend the Sacred Heart purchase "at this time," followed by Ahouse motion to further investigate the "4-4-4."

Ahouse said he was particularly interested in what would happen to "education quality," by the lack of support facilities at the middle school level, for instance. He also wanted specifics on the time and cost to renovate.

During his report on present facilities, Seifert said a closet at Doherty was being used for tutoring of six youngsters, while at Sanborn, a shipping and receiving room is being used for a learning disabilities class of 20 and a chair closet is being used for instrumental music for another 20 pupils.

At West Elementary, he said, a custodian closet is being used for tutoring, while at South, there is small group instruction in the main corridors and a math lab on stage.

The heaviest problems occur at the junior highs, he said, while Bancroft and Shawsheen both reported no "questionable areas."

Electric Co. Income Shows Gain

New England Electric System reports consolidated net income for the first four months of 1975 of $1.15 per share compared to 67 cents per share last year and $1.08 per share in 1973. For the twelve months ended April 1975 earnings were $2.75 per share, compared with $1.94 a year ago and $2.59 two years ago.

The improvement in net income includes about 10 cents a share for the first four months and about 15 cents a share for the twelve months from a temporary $7 million surcharge in one of the System's subsidiary companies. The surcharge went into effect in October 1974 and is expected to terminate in mid 1975. Three subsidiaries have rate increases pending including one which is to go into effect, subject to refund, June 1, 1975.

Softball Lg. Opens Season

THE TOWNSMAN, MAY 29, 1975

The Andover Recreation / Community Schools Men's Softball League opened its season last week sporting a 12 team league and over 225 players. In the first week of action explosive hitting and shaky defenses resulted in high scoring games. Sharing the top spot with 2-0 records are the Andover Hockey Shop and the Andover Town Grill. The Hockey Shop out-slugged Modicon coming out on top 21-15 and managed to slip past Embassy 11-7 in extra innings with the aid of a Jim McCarron bases loaded triple. The Town Grill shaded Lee Dodd Realty 5-4 and then, paced by a Kevin Chamberlain 3 run homes and a Hegmut Lutch solo shot, walloped Keenan's Realty 14-5.

In other league action Lee Dodd Realty opened their season on a winning note romping over B.J. Collins Realty 16-4. Chad Wilson provided most of the power for Lee Dodd collecting 3 hits one of which was a 310 foot homer.

Forresta's Construction topped Town Deli 5-4 in extra innings while Embassy got by Doherty's 4-3 also in extra innings.

Dana's lost a hitters battle to Whitworth's 14-13 but managed to dump Forresta's Construction 7-1 to even up their record.

Towne Deli also got on the winning track by downing Whitworth's 3-1.

The White Sox regained the lead in the third as Rick O'Shea singled and advanced to second on an error, and came home on Mike Ganem's single. The Red Sox tied it up again in their half of the third inning, as Tom Hetley reached on an error and advanced to third on a wild pitch and came home on an attempted steal by Todd Zimmerman who had walked.

The White Sox took the lead again for the third straight time with three runs in the fourth inning to take a 5-2 lead, but the Red Sox came back with three in the fifth inning to tie the game up for the third time.

The White Sox took the lead for the fourth time 6-5 in the 6th inning as Tom Stedman singled to right field, Dan Fleming singled to right field and Adam Roberts reached on an error as Stedman scored. The Red Sox cardiac kids came up in the last inning, last half of the 6th and scored two runs for the victory. ## YMCA Summer Camping

The Andover-North Andover YMCA, through the Camping Services Dept. of its parent Association, the Greater Lawrence YMCA, offers many summer camping experiences to residents of the two towns and neighboring communities. Literature may be obtained at the new YMCA building in Andover or by calling the Camping Services office at the Lawrence YMCA, telephone 686-6191.

The Andover-North Andover YMCA, in addition, will conduct a Kinder-Kamp for the first time using the new building as a center. Serving boys and girls 4-6 years of age, the Day Camp type operation, adjusted to meet the needs of pre-schoolers, will provide a program which will include swimming instruction and physical education classes in addition to the more common type of kindergarten activities. The local Y will also conduct its own Family Camp for family groups as a post-season program (August 23-30) at Camp Nokomis. Registrations for both of the above programs are presently being accepted at the new YMCA office.

Completing the list of camping services available through the local Branch YMCA are: the Lawrence YMCA Day Camp for Boys 7-12 years of age on Captain's Pond in Salem, N.H.; resident camps, Camp Lawrence for boys 8-15 years and Camp Nokomis for girls 8-16 years, both being camps with long histories located on Bear Island, Lake Winnepesaukee. Camp Lawrence will also be used as a location for the Lawrence YMCA post-season Family Camp. Camp Westward-Ho for boys, 13-16 years, provides 28 days of travel camp experience in its 19th annual trip to the West Coast.

National Minor Results

In Andover National Minor League action last week, the Cards and Redlegs emerged as the only two undefeated teams.

The DePiano brothers proved to be too much for the Phillies to handle as the Cards triumphed 8-1. Fred pitched a masterful six innings and Jim did the hitting, including a home run. Kevin Hoffman and Ted McDonald were the Phillies standouts.

The Braves beat the Giants 3-0 with Jay Eldred registering a 5-hit shutout. Albie Cullen turned in an outstanding job of pitching for the Giants. Sam White and Kevin Gallant were the Braves' sluggers, while Cheryl Downey solved Jay Eldred for 2 of the 5 Giant hits.

The Pirates maintained their winning ways with a 5-2 victory over the Dodgers. Dana Demers had his bid for a no-hitter spoiled by a 2 run homer off the bat of Dave Chechik. Bruce Barnhill and Phil Kirkland each collected 3 hits for the Pirates.

The powerful Redlegs blasted the Astros 20-11 and the Astros then turned around and beat the Braves 13-12. The Astro hitting attack was paced by Glen Waldie, John Barrett, Steve Paradis and Steve Farrington. Braves standouts were Kevin Gallant and the Weil brothers.

The Cards handed the Pirates their first loss in over a year by a score of 13-5. Mike Burt pitched 6 strong innings, while the DePiano brothers and Peggy Harrington provided the hits. Phil Travis, Dana Demers and Phil Kirkland paced the Pirates attack.

The Dodgers outlasted the Phillies 13-12 in extra innings. Scott Gardner and Craig Silva sprayed hits all over the field for the Dodgers, while Vito Ciati was a busy Phillie collecting 3 hits and making 2 spectacular catches.

The Redlegs continued to roll 12-7 over the Giants. Jeff Reichert and Mike Walsh shared pitching honors with Walsh also batting in 5 runs. The Giants were led by Mark Robichaud and Tom Hepworth.

Registration For Summer Programs Begins June 4

Registration for the Academic Summer School Program and the Recreation / Community Schools Enrichment Program will be held in the West Elementary School cafeteria on Wednesday, June 4 and Thursday, June 5 from 3:30 - 5 p.m.

The Recreation / Community Schools Summer Program will run from June 30 - Aug. 22. The academic summer school program will begin a week later, running from July 7 - Aug. 1.

The Andover Academic Summer School will offer a variety of basic and enrichment programs this year.

The basic program will consist of small group and individual work in both mathematics and reading. Also, in the basic program will be individual tutoring by the Learning Disabilities department in both linguistics and mathematics. Again this year, continued practice for those children taking speech therapy will be provided by the speech therapy department of the public schools.

The enrichment portion of the academic summer school has been expanded this year to include several new programs. An enrichment program in mathematics will be offered to students in grades 1 - 6 who have an interest in this area.

A social studies program, open to students in grades 3 - 6, will explore the historical significance of Andover, and focus on Andover's role in the American Revolution.

A course in chess for those who have little or no knowledge of the game will be presented.

Three courses in the language arts field will also be offered this year. In the area of writing skills a course designed to improve students' grammatical abilities is offered. An expanded course in creative writing with emphasis on technique and form is the second offering. The newspaper, again for students who like to write, is the third offering in the language arts area. A bi-weekly summer school newspaper, as well as articles for the TOWNSMAN will be written by students.

Subjects offered: Mathematics, 9-10 a.m., grade 3-4; 10-11 a.m., grade 5-6; 11-12 noon, grade 1-2.

Reading, 9-10 a.m., grade 5-6; 10-11 a.m., grade 1-2; 11-12 noon, grade 3-4.

Linguistics, by appointment; Speech Therapy, by appointment.

Typing, 9-10 a.m., grade 3-4; 10-11 a.m., grade 5; 11-12 noon, grade 6.

Language arts: Grammar: 9-10 a.m., grade 4-6; Newspaper, 10-11 a.m., grade 4-6; Creative Writing, 11-12 noon, grade 4-6.

Enrichment Math, 9-10 a.m., grade 1-6.

Social Studies, 10-11 a.m., grade 4-6.

Chess, 11-12 noon, grade 1-6.

In conjunction with the Academic Summer School, the Recreation / Community Schools Department offers a comprehensive enrichment program at West Elementary. While the basic course offerings are the same at all playground locations the large number of children attending the summer school program necessitates a greater number of hours for each enrichment course at this school. Children are encouraged to attend the playground closest to their home.

The following is the West Elementary Enrichment schedule. Grade refers to that presently attended. Parents must register their children for academic courses before enrichment courses.

Bicentennial exhibits at the Boston Museum of Science include "In Celebration of Living Whale," featuring a 4,000-pound lifelike model of a whaleboat, scrimshaw and other artifacts from the New England whaling industry.

Recreation / Community Schools Summer Program booklets will be mailed to each resident household the first week in June.

Backyard Pool Program To Commence

For the eighth straight year the Andover-North Andover YMCA will conduct its summer swimming program in private backyard pools of the two communities.

The program, with the passage of the years, has attracted much attention, particularly among YMCAs and is believed to be unique, at least in this part of the country. Last summer 42 private backyard and apartment complex pools were offered to the local YMCA for programming. 108 courses were conducted with an enrollment of 908 individuals who attended 868 class sessions and produced an attendance record of 7,307. A certified instructor was in charge of each class and an excellent ratio of less than three pupils per instructor was maintained.

Members of the YMCA of any category may enroll for swimming instruction in private backyard pools of their selection, the locations being well scattered over the two communities. Non-members of the YMCA may affiliate at a nominal charge and also are served in great numbers. In addition to basic instruction classes for boys and girls 4 years of age and over, with Red Cross and YMCA certifications for those meeting the various requirements, a limited number of special instruction classes will be spotted in several sections for women, for Mothers and Tots 3 and 4 years of age, and for advanced swimmers. Arrangements for other types of instruction may be made.

Registrations will be accepted, on a first come basis, beginning June 12 at the YMCA building, 165 Haverhill St., Andover. The program will get under way June 27 and will continue for 8 weeks.

God And Country Concert Tonight

A sacred concert for God and Country will be presented in the Andover Baptist Church, corner of Essex and Central Streets, Andover, on Thursday, May 29, 15 7:15 p.m. by Jack Connor, internationally known marimbist.

He has played over the NBC, CBS and Mutual networks, performed with the U. S. Navy Band, with the Rome Symphony Orchestra and in cities all over the world.

He is a dedicated Christian combining his musical talent with a Christian witness. In this Bicentennial year, he gives a program which rediscovers America's heritage built on the foundation of the Bible, and shows its importance today if America is to remain a strong leader among the nations and perform God's purpose in the world.

He has just starred in the Ken

Anderson film, "In God We Trust," showing the hand of God in American history.

Much of his time is spent giving concerts in churches and schools. His appearance at Andover Baptist Church will be the only one in this area and so the public is cordially invited to attend. No tickets are needed and there is no admission charge, but a voluntary offering will be received. His concerts in New England are being arranged by the New England Fellowship.

Let's Look At A Positive Side

Andover's public school system has been under attack for these past few years, justifiably perhaps in some cases.

Currently under criticism is the Individually Guided Education (IGE) program.

The back-to-basics movement has been a prominent part of school committee campaigns in recent years, with those so inclined maintaining an edge in school board membership at the present time.

At a recent panel on education, an administrator from another system alluded to educational critique through the press as being a deterrent, something with which we must, of course, disagree, but that for another day.

Teachers should give direction, administrators should have full control, school committees should keep out of educational policy area, we are told.

Through all of this furore and condemnation of the system, Andover has attained a singular honor among Greater Lawrence communities in having three of its senior class members earning National Merit Scholar status and one gaining a National Honor Society scholarship.

It is with pride that we note:

National Merit Finalists

Albert I. Alexander
Denise M. White

National Honor Society $1,000 Scholarship

Sandra J. Healy
Second year such honor gained by an Andover high student.

These young people are products of the Andover public school system.

The honors they have gained for themselves and their parents, are a reflection of personal sacrifice and effort.

The National Merit Scholarship Foundation does not arbitrarily single out students for honors. They are earned through a testing process as well as other criteria.

That Andover has placed well in this attainment this year is not unusual. It has been custom in the past several years for such accomplishment to be duly noted in the columns of the TOWNSMAN. Notification to this office of those so honored, is made in a general release containing the names of all students so honored from throughout the country.

It is worth noting that Andover has headed that list in this area, other surrounding communities noticeably absent in the recording of such accomplishment.

What this says for Andover's educational system, we feel, is that the opportunities are there for those who wish to obtain a proper and good education.

Is Andover's system inferior?

Did such accomplishment by these young people come to Andover despite or because of the system?

Quite frankly we lean to the latter, in the belief that the opportunities are there for those who wish to pursue their talents to the utmost.

We also commend to the attention of those interested in the accomplishments of the Andover system:

- The Andover Individualized Reading Program selected as one of the best nationally.
- Designation of Mrs. Lois Haslam, Doherty School principal as Chairman of the Elementary Education Committee of the Massachusetts Council of teachers of English.

Which brings us to a conclusion of asking isn't the time long overdue to examine some of the positive aspects of Andover education?

As an initial step, our congratulations to the students for their notable accomplishment and the teachers and administrators for offering the guidance and direction.

10 Years Ago - 1965

Ground will be broken for a new professional office building to be constructed at 15 Central street. Estimated cost is in excess of $100,000.

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen warns that the town's water supply is decreasing rapidly and unless substantial rains replenish the level some curtailment may be ordered.

At the request of the school committee, the High School this week sent out a questionnaire to parents to measure interest in the addition of Spanish and German to the curriculum.

Andover's tax rate was established this week at $34, an increase of $1 over a year ago.

So far there has been little objection to the decision to move the sixth grades from the South school to the Stowe school next year to relieve overcrowding.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I would like to make a comment on the school nurses at the Doherty School in Andover, Mass. Last week, my second grader fell from the top of the slide during recess and broke her wrist. It was not an obvious break, so the nurse applied ice to it, and it began to swell, so she put a splint and a cast on it and called me to explain what had happened. When I took her to the Dr., he was very impressed with the superb job the nurse had done. For some reason, there is a stigma attached to being a school nurse. I must say, people don't hold them capable of applying more than a band-aid. Well I'm pleased to say I am thankful this is not true, as I have seen first hand for myself.

Compliments to the school nurses at Doherty!

Want Names Public On Letters Read

Andover teachers and principals have both asked the School Committee for a policy barring letters from being read at their meeting without signatures.

The Andover Education Association's executive board called the reading of a letter at the May 6 meeting which condemned IGE "a dangerous precedence," because the names of the signers were withheld.

They said it was an "unethical and questionable practice" that could have "devastating effects on the morale" in the system, and requested that all letters read into the record in the future include both content and signatures.

Chairman Frank Griggs, to whom the letter was addressed, and who read the letter aloud, says "If the committee says I did wrong, I won't do it again." Griggs had agreed to withhold the names of the signers.

Committeeman George Olesen said he did not find the letter in any way derogatory to any member of the staff.

"If the names are known to the chairman, then that's sufficient," Olesen said. However, he questioned the interpretation that the tape recordings of the committee's sessions are the official record, and Counsel James Murphy subsequently said that the official record is the written minutes which the committee approves.

Committeeman David

Ahouse said that when a letter is read, it does provide some sort of public format and should be identified.

John Howard, a Shawsheen parent who did sign the letter in order for it to be printed in last week's TOWNSMAN, said the parents feared it would be a reflection on their youngsters. Such, he said, is the rapport between parents and teachers.

Committeeman Elaine Viehmann responded that the committee was the "last recall" and that parents with complaints should miss any of the areas along the way, starting with teachers, up through the principals and the administration.

Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert added that the "chain of command" policy was the proper way to go.

A similar letter, from Unite B of the AEA, or the principals, expressed "serious concern" about the practice of reading letters without names.

"No official sanction," they said, should be given to a group whose names are withheld.

Briggs Is Honored

Nelson A. Briggs, 43 Summer Street, Andover, has received the Society for Technical Communication's highest award, election to the rank of Fellow in the Society.

A member of the Society's Boston chapter, Briggs is manager of the Technical Information Department at The Mitre Corporation, Bedford.

The Society, headquartered in Washington, D.C., represents nearly 4,000 writers, editors, artists, illustrators, and printing production and management personnel involved in the publication of technical materials.

Announcement of his election as a Fellow was made at the Society's recently concluded annual meeting in Anaheim, California.

A member of the technical communication society since 1956, Briggs has been active on both local and national levels, and has served as chairman of the Boston chapter. The citation read: "For his diligence in upgrading the profession through pioneering new programs and concepts which motivate the membership and recognize major contributions by others."

The largest single source of environmental jobs has been created by the Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1970, Massachusetts Audubon says. Over 400 private companies manufacture water - pollution - control equipment and parts, and 250,000 people are employed in manufacturing, operating and maintaining installations. Installing and operating water - pollution - control facilities is the second largest public works program in the nation.

Spring Reading

The following is a list of a few of the fiction titles that have been popular reading this year. If any of them interest you, why don't you come in and reserve them at the circulation desk: Centennial by James Michener; Harlequin by Morris West; Jaws by Peter Benchley; Lady by Thomas Tryon; The Lost Honor of Katharina Blum by Heinrich Boll; The Maze by Eileen Simpson; The Moneychangers by Arthur Hailey; Sneaky People by Thomas Berger; Something Happened by Joseph Heller.

Children's Room News By Jan Johnson

Kids. Begin the summer of our Bicentennial by joining us for a party. Yankee Doodle Has a Birthday is a two-part celebration of the music and games enjoyed by children 200 years ago. Children in grades K-3 are invited to come to the Children's Room on Saturday, May 31 at 10 to learn some of these games, sing some of the songs and watch a play performed by VIBOR'. It would be fun if you could come in costume (something simple like a tri-cornered hat or a long skirt) but it isn't necessary. Just remember, a party isn't much fun if there aren't lots of people. All of you in grades 4 and up (everyone is welcome) are invited for your turn the next Saturday, June 7, at 10. Meet us here.

Do you remember the secret Book of the Month Contest last year? A new contest will begin this year on June 1. Each month of the summer the Children's Librarians will pick a fairly well-known book. Every week a new clue will be posted. Guess the name of the book. The first three correct guesses each month will receive prizes.

Rocky Hill Reservation - Evidence Of A Glacier

Recreation Reserved

By Lyn Beattie

This is another in a series of articles about the Andover Village Improvement Society reservations in Andover. AVIS acquires woodlands, green areas, wetlands and riverbanks to preserve their trees, plants, wildlife and scenic beauty. Walking trails are maintained for public use, and all activities consistent with conservational objectives are encouraged.

Located in the southern portion of Andover, Rocky Hill Reservation consists of 33.5 acres of scenic, rolling land. It is circled by a well marked three-quarter mile walking trail. Access and ample parking are available at the end of Rocky Hill Road off South Main St., or on the corner of Rte. 125 and Gould Road opposite the state police barracks. Signs are located at the beginning of the trail at either end.

The reservation began with a gift of eight acres from Phillips Academy in 1963, and grew with subsequent purchases until 1968 when it reached its present size.

While the area offers a variety of flora and fauna, perhaps the most interesting features are geological. Through the reservation runs the contact area of two major rock types; the Andover Granite, which underlies and forms the rolling hills of central Andover, and the Salem Diorite which underlies the lowlands of the Ipswich River basin to the south. In addition the effects of glacial action can be seen in the form of a small moraine, a kettle hole and glacial polishing with striations on rock hills.

Entering the reservation from the corner of Rte. 125, one enters a nicely wooded area on an old dirt road. On the right is an extensive marsh formed as the last remnants of glacial ice melted and deposited its burden of sand and silt. These deposits formed a small hill or moraine to the south where Rte. 125 now runs. Because drainage has been blocked the lush marsh has formed.

After a short distance the trail turns right into a wooded area and follows under an impressive granite cliff along the edge of the marsh. Just to the left of the trail and halfway up the slopes is a contact zone between the coarse grained light colored Andover Granite on one side and the darker fine grained Salem Diorite on the other. The contact is marked by a zone of metamorphism consisting of banding and many tiny garnet crystals. This is best seen as the trail climbs the slope above the marsh.

Outcrops of coarsely grained Andover Granite form a series of low ridges with small forested valleys between, probably caused by erosion of the granite along minor faults. Several small dikes of basalt can be seen in these outcrops, and farther along a last outcrop shows the strong polishing effect of ice on rock.

The trail continues along the edge of a meadow below the granite hills and crosses the contact zone once again. Upon descending the last ridge, the trail recrosses the marsh, then climbs the sand hill of the moraine, circles a three sided kettle hole and continues all the well forested slope to the parking lot.

The area abounds in blueberries and wildflowers which are blooming now. Starflowers bloom in pairs, their fragile white stars atop a whorl of leaves. Wild lily-of-the-valley has a stalk of tiny white flowers which later form red berries. Indian cucumber-root and sarsaparilla are seen on occasion, and in profusion is the most elegant of all, the pink lady-slipper.

This reservation with its short trail covers some of the most interesting geology in Andover. It can easily be walked in twenty minutes - it deserves a more relaxed pace.

For more information about the reservations and trails, AVIS maps are available at Memorial Hall Library, Town Hall and several local stores.

The geological information herein has been contributed by Dave Erickson.

Bob Says:

These days the Government always seems to look for someone to pick on. And when they run out of foreign countries and tax payers they'd just as soon hassle some corporation that's really successful. It's almost as though they couldn't see that successful businesses create jobs and strength and the wealth that the government tries so hard to give away - often to the same countries they just finished picking on. Does that make sense? One of their recent targets has been the Xerox corporation, the worlds richest copy company. The FTC forced Xerox to sell its patent rights because they were 'too' successful. Well competition for Xerox isn't going to spring into being because the Feds want it to, it's going to come from other companies, who want to be just as rich as Xerox, trying to find better ways to make copies.

Minolta Camera has come up with one better way and it's called the Electrographic 101. We're proud to represent Minolta in this area and we'll have the Electrographic 101 soon. It's a far better and less expensive way to make copies for those of you businessmen who want to have the "Xerox quality but not the Xerox bills." If the Electrographic 101 sounds like what your office is looking for, call us for more information. We like to solve copy problems.

The traditional time for planting tomatoes in the Bay State is the last weekend in May.

When selecting your tomato plants, advises the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture, be sure they are healthy, stocky plants with a good green color.

A yellowish color indicates the plants have been retarded, and to get them growing again will require special care.

A strong, stocky plant will more easily withstand the weather change from indoors to outdoors, and also the hot sun and wind of early summer.

If the variety of tomato plant isn't marked, ask questions. Varieties that do well in Massachusetts include Big Boy, Rutgers, Supersonic, Jet Star, Springset, Fantastic and Glamour.

Before planting, make sure the soil of your garden is in a workable condition. It should be free from lumps and heavy stones and also dry enough so that if you take up a handful of soil, it will crumble. Watering comes after planting.

For best results, work a liberal application of compost and fertilizer into the soil before planting.

The ideal time to plant tomatoes is in the evening when the sun is going down.

Dig a hole deep enough and wide enough to cover the roots sufficiently. Judge according to size -- if the plant is 8 to 10 inches tall, for example, the hole should be at least 3 inches deep. The plants should be set at least 12 inches apart.

Next give the tomato plants plenty of water. The ground should be very wet, but keep the water off the plant itself to avoid burning of the leaves.

If the plants look dry the next day, water again around the roots. Though the plants may look droopy, they should recover in four or five days.

In about three or four weeks, when the plants are well established, loosen the ground around them and give each one about a cupful of liquid fertilizer. About the same amount can be applied every two weeks until the first of September.

It will help to water your tomato plants fairly frequently, and also keep them free of weeds. Mulch or grass clippings can be strewn between the rows to keep weeds to a minimum. Also, remove any small green "suckers" that sometimes often grow between two of the larger leaf branches on the tomato plants.

While many gardening buffs prefer to tie up their tomato plants to stakes, the plants can be left to grow as a vine on the ground.

Geraniums and bedding plants such as petunias, marigolds, zinnias, dahlias, and a multitude of tender types, which are the main color display in the home garden during the summer, can be set out now. Many new varieties and improved colors, shapes, and sizes are available for local stores.

This is also the time of year to plant tomatoes, peppers, beans, squash, lettuce and a variety of other vegetables. A small area for the home vegetable garden can provide an unequalled source

TRUTH MADE HER FREE.

An understanding of God, Truth, freed an Indiana woman from an infected lung, arthritis, and confinement to a wheelchair. It changed her whole life.

But this is not why she came to Christian Science in the first place. It was her hunger for an understanding of God. If you are searching for the joyous freedom that comes from knowing God's presence in your life, come to our service this Wednesday evening. ## Board Accepts Counsel

E. Lane filed the "secret meeting" suit against them. Attorney James Murphy has been representing them, at the rate of $500 per month, but plans to wind up his responsibilities by next week.

He said Tuesday night he believed O'Brien "can furnish you counsel," and that the committee was mistaken by believing that if one day two lawyers are out to lunch together, the next day they can't be representing opposing clients in court.

He said O'Brien had a "sterling" reputation in this area, and added that he himself didn't want the job "because I don't think $5,000 is enough... to give opinions, go into court when you feel you want to, and tackle every lawyer in the county if you happen to be mad at every lawyer in the county."

If you want to set up a legal fund for special instances, he said, "that's your business," adding that it was also a statutory right.

Lyons' attempt to get the special fund restored followed a preparing statement that lashed out at former Committee Chairman Richard Katz. Katz moved at Town Meeting in April to eliminate the $5,000 special counsel from next year's school budget.

Lyons said that move was a "well-planned and executed maneuver," that was backed by a "certain group" of people in town who had done everything to "harrass, discredit and humiliate" the committee in the past year.

He said his only "defense" is feeling the way Andover schools were run a few years ago was not in the best interest of most of the people in town.

He predicted a two-prong outcome from the Katz action: stripping the committee of capable legal counsel, followed by a Regan law suit. Lyons said that case had been "waiting in the wings for months... for an appropriate time."

He said there were very few options left to the committee and that he felt it "urgent and necessary" to have their own legal counsel.

He said the fund would be "set aside and used only when needed," when specific interests arise.

Chairman Frank E. Griggs said he would favor using O'Brien for day-to-day legal matters, while setting aside funds in the event of a law suit.

"We have to go into a suit with a lawyer in whom we have confidence," he said, adding he would like to set aside the money now so if the lawsuit were initiated tomorrow, "we'd be ready to move."

He said he felt it would not be going against Town Meeting if the funds were for self-defense, and that "hopefully they'd never be used."

He joined Committeemen Elaine Viehmann and David Ahouse, however, to defeat the Lyons' motion, and voted with them to retain O'Brien "for all present School Committee purposes."

In making that motion, Ahouse said he felt nothing had been said to discredit O'Brien in his mind.

His motion was seconded by Elaine Viehmann.

Camping Safety

Camping in a tent can be fun. However, campers should be aware that most tents burn and some are very flammable.

When purchasing a tent, consumers should look for flame retardant or flame resistant models. Never use candles or open flames in or around the tent. Build campfires several yards away from the tent and extinguish them well before retiring for the night. Flammable liquids should be stored away from the tent.

In Justice Department Position

Attorney Joseph Tabacco, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Tabacco of Andover has accepted the position of Staff Prosecutor for the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division in the Los Angeles California Regional Office.

Atty. Tabacco will leave private practice with the Washington, D.C. law firm of Steptoe and Johnson to assume the Government position.

with the program, the camp site, other staff members, and the directors of each camp.

The council's Camping Services Director, Ruth Nash of Merrimack, was on hand to explain the program and introduce the trainers for the session, who were camp directors Jeanne Brown, Camp Sacajawea; Lucille Roy, Camp Merrymeeting; Judy Mathieu, Camp Kiwanis; and Penny Turner, Camp Petapawag, and their assistant directors Sharon Miles, Veronica Sherman, Elyse Grubis, Claire Agresti and Lydia Slosarik, respectively.

Mrs. Lucille Roy of Lawrence, camp director, and Ms. Veronica Sherman of Billerica, program director, will again head the staff at Camp Merrymeeting on Pump's Pond in Andover. They plan to emphasize Bicentennial crafts and culture in this summer's program as an added feature to the "normal" camp routine.

Camp Merrymeeting has staff members and campers from Andover, Billerica, Lawrence, Methuen, Tewksbury, and Wilmington. Last year 277 campers took part in the program, and at least as many are expected to spend part of their summer at Merrymeeting in '75.

There are still several staff openings at Merrymeeting, and plenty of room for campers. Non-Scouts are as welcome as Girl Scouts. For information and registration forms, call or write the Council Office, 89 No. Main St., Andover.

We're Now Bicentennial Community

Andover officially became a Bicentennial town on Monday with the presentation of the Bicentennial flag at ceremonies in front of the Town House. Congressman Paul Tsongas spoke at the program and presented the flag to Mrs. Norma Gammon, center, chairman of the Andover Bicentennial Commission.

Exciting Array Set For Bazaar Days

It's almost that time of year when the sidewalks of Andover come alive with booths, rides and entertainment at the Annual Bazaar Days sponsored by the Andover Chamber of Commerce's Center Merchants. John Obert and Paul Gmyrek, co-chairmen of this event, have put together an exciting array of rides, bands and booths designed to entertain and satisfy the entire family.

A great program will take place during the Bazaar Days. The committee has been extremely fortunate in being able to obtain Anheuser - Busch's famous Clydesdales for Saturday, June 21 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Tee Emm's Kennels will have a dog show, the Twilight Twirlers will dance for everyone's pleasure, the Lynn Chapter of Sweet Adelines and their all women Barbershoppers will follow Andover's own Clan McPherson. There will also be a demonstration of karate by Matson's Andover branch and the Andover Militia will perform for the first time on Main Street.

Over 20 booths will be manned by Andover community organizations offering all types of bargains and gastronomic delights to treat bargain hunters and gourmets. The merchants will offer exceptional values at outdoor sales tables.

The Andover Bazaar Days are scheduled for Friday and Saturday, June 20 and 21. Friday the hours will be from 9 a.m. through 9 p.m. and on Saturday the hours will be from 9 a.m. through 5 p.m.

Fire Destroys W. Andover Barn

started under some old tires stored in a section in that area. Sgt. Parker reported there were no wires, stoves or heaters in the barn area where the fire is believed to have started, thus the blaze could not have been initiated by any such malfunctions in those items.

Lost in the contents of the barn were an old tractor and an antique car, according to Disbrow. He said he had not seen or heard anyone around the area prior to discovering the fire and reporting it to the fire department at 8:30 p.m.

Disbrow and his employee, McConnell, were inducted in connection with fires and fire-bombings of three Andover barns and residences in February.

Disbrow had posted bail for his release from jail and was returned to the courts on additional charges a week ago. On Friday, Disbrow posted $5,000 cash bail to obtain his release, Andover police said.

Plants Like Light

Plants bend toward the light from a window because they are not receiving enough light, Massachusetts Audubon says. Light inhibits the hormone which causes plant cell elongation, so the shadowed side of the plant grows faster which makes the plant bend. Plants grown under iniformaly dark conditions are tall and spindly.
